MEET TEAM AT WOZA MOYA 2019

Woza Moya reopened on a high note in January, with all the team having had a good annual break, returning refreshed and ready to embrace the New Year. Despite limited funding, the atmosphere is buoyant and positive, as we continue to learn how to do more with less.

At the end of last year the Woza Moya Board formally approved the new Strategic Plan. In January, Programme Leaders, Champions, Members, met to discuss and plan the year ahead. Early Childhood Survival and Development (ECD), and Youth Development are high priority programmes.

WOZA MOYA STRATEGIC PLAN IN BRIEF

OUR VISION is for all people in the Ufafa Valley Community to be healthy and productive, living in a safe and clean environment, with good access to services and social justice.

OUR MISSION is to facilitate the sustainable empowerment of the community to fulfil the vision through partnering with the community in health services, capacity building, education, civic participation, engagement with service providers and other strategic partnerships.

OUR CORE VALUES are Respect, Honesty, Partnering, Accountability, Commitment, Compassion, Mindfulness
